TOP THINGS TO DO

- Souk El Had — Visit one of Africa's largest markets, a labyrinth of stalls selling spices, leather goods, leather and traditional Moroccan crafts.
- Agadir Oufella — Ascend to the ruins of the old fortress on the hill for the most iconic panoramic views of the Agadir bay and city.
- Paradise Valley — A scenic trip into the Atlas Mountains to see natural rock pools and waterfalls in a lush valley setting.
- Agadir Beach — Enjoy the wide, golden sands of the Atlantic coast, perfect for sunbathing, surfing, or a seaside stroll.

BEST WALKS

- City Center Stroll Shopping & Dining — Take a taxi to the city center and walk through the modern streets, visiting local cafes and boutiques.
- Beachfront Promenade Beach & Ocean — Walk along the wide promenade that separates the beach from the city, offering a relaxing view of the Atlantic.
- Kasbah Agadir History & Culture — Visit the reconstructed fortress and museum to learn about the city's history and the 1960 earthquake.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Bargaining is expected and essential in the souks; never accept the first price offered.
- Dress modestly when visiting religious sites or rural areas in the Atlas Mountains.
- Orange 'Petit Taxis' are for within the city; Grand Taxis are for travel outside the city limits.
- Be mindful of local customs when taking photos of people, especially in traditional dress.
- Try a traditional Moroccan tajine or couscous at a local restaurant for an authentic taste of the region.
