TOP THINGS TO DO

- Amalfi Cathedral & Piazza del Duomo — The Cattedrale di Sant'Andrea, with 9th-century origins and largely rebuilt from 987 onward, dominates Amalfi's main square with its striped...
- Museo della Carta — Amalfi Paper Museum — Amalfi was Europe's first paper-making centre.
- Positano & the Amalfi Drive — A scenic taxi, bus, or boat ride takes you to Positano's pastel houses, Spiaggia Grande beach, and the Church of Santa Maria Assunta.
- Ravello Villa Gardens — High above the sea, Ravello's Villa Rufolo and Villa Cimbrone offer world-class gardens and the Terrace of Infinity viewpoint.
- Path of the Gods Hike (Sentiero degli Dei) — One of Italy's most celebrated coastal hikes, linking Agerola to Nocelle with panoramic cliff-top views over the coast.

BEST WALKS

- Waterfront to Cathedral Walk 30-45 min | Easy | Mostly flat — From Marina Coppola, cross the waterfront promenade and head straight up Via Lorenzo d'Amalfi to Piazza del Duomo.
- Paper Museum & Valle delle Ferriere Trail Start 1-2 hrs | Easy-moderate | Some uphill — Follow Via delle Cartiere uphill from the town centre to the Museo della Carta, then continue on the path into the Ferriere valley for lush greenery and the ruins of old...
- Atrani Village Loop 45-60 min | Easy | Flat coastal path — Walk east from the Amalfi waterfront along the shore to neighbouring Atrani — one of Italy's smallest towns — with its arched squares, fishermen's houses, and quiet...

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Tender lines can be long: Be at the gangway early (before 9 AM) or wait until mid-morning crowds clear. Last tender times are strictly enforced.
- Weather can cancel tendering: Rough sea or strong winds can suspend operations for the whole day. Have a backup plan on board.
- SITA buses are cheap but packed: Tickets to Positano or Ravello cost a few euros but buses get extremely crowded in summer. Buy tickets at the tabacchi on the waterfront before boarding.
- Buy local limoncello: Amalfi lemons (sfusato amalfitano) are IGP-protected — the limoncello and lemon granita here is genuinely different from tourist-trap versions elsewhere.
- Wear good shoes: Amalfi's lanes involve steps and cobblestones. The Path of the Gods hike requires proper footwear — flip-flops are a bad idea.
- Card payments accepted widely in town, but carry a few euros for bus tickets, small cafés, and tip jars.
