KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Weather changes fast in the Azores — bring a light rain layer even on a sunny morning. Locals say: if you don't like the weather, wait 15 minutes.
- Wear real shoes — the historic center's cobblestones are beautiful but uneven and can be slippery when wet.
- Book Algar do Carvão early — the cave has limited daily capacity and cruise day visits fill up. Reserve through your ship or a local operator in advance.
- Whale watching is weather-dependent — trips may be cancelled if seas are rough. Ask about the cancellation/refund policy before booking independently.
- Cash and cards both work — most restaurants and shops in the city center accept cards, but carry a few euros for small cafés and market stalls.
- Try the local food — Terceira is known for alcatra (slow-braised beef stew), Azorean cheeses (queijo da Ilha), and pastéis de nata. Several good spots are within easy walking distance of the port.
