TOP THINGS TO DO

- Aspendos Roman Theater — One of the best-preserved Roman theaters on earth, Aspendos (47 km east) seats 15,000 and still hosts performances.

- Ancient Perge & Antalya Museum — Perge's colonnaded Roman streets, grand gate, and stadium are about 25 km from port (18 km east of the city center).
- Düden Waterfalls Boat Trip — The Lower Düden Waterfall plunges directly into the Mediterranean — the only way to see it properly is from the sea.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Pay in lira. Euros are accepted many places but you'll get poor rates. ATMs at the port and city center give Turkish lira; cards work almost everywhere in tourist areas.
- Agree on taxi price upfront or insist on the meter. Port taxis can quote flat rates — around €20-25 to Kaleiçi is fair; more than that, negotiate or find another cab.
- Summer heat is serious. June–September temps hit 35°C+. Start outside early, visit museums midday, and carry water — especially at open-air ancient sites like Aspendos and Perge.
- Dress for mosques. Kaleiçi has several active mosques. Shoulders and knees covered; women may need a headscarf. Keep a light scarf in your bag.
- Try fresh-squeezed OJ. Street vendors sell glasses of juice from local oranges for almost nothing. Antalya's citrus is famous — it's the real deal.
- Ancient sites need time. Aspendos, Perge, and Termessos each warrant 2+ hours alone. Don't try to combine more than two major ruins in one day.
