TOP THINGS TO DO

- The Mummies of the Chinchorro — Visit the San Miguel de Azapa Archaeological Museum to see the world's oldest artificially mummified remains, predating the Egyptian mummies.
 - El Morro de Arica — Ascend the coastal cliff for panoramic views of the city and the Pacific Ocean.
- Playa Chinchorro Promenade — Stroll the revitalized seaside promenade at Playa Chinchorro, enjoying ocean views, local seafood, and artisan markets along the shore.
 - Azapa Valley — Explore the fertile green oasis of the Azapa Valley, known for its agriculture and local markets selling fresh olives and tropical fruit.

BEST WALKS

- City Center Stroll City Center, Plaza de Armas, Local Markets — Walk from the port to the Plaza de Armas, exploring the local shops and the colonial architecture of the city center.
- El Morro Walk El Morro, Coastal Cliff — Walk from the port to the base of El Morro and climb the stairs to the top for a view of the Pacific Ocean.
- Arica Port Terminal Portuario de Arica — The main hub for cruise passengers, providing easy access to the city's main attractions.
