KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Carry local cash. Street vendors, beach kiosks, and smaller cafés work in Brazilian reais; many don't take foreign cards. ATMs are available near the terminal and city center.
- Sun protection is non-negotiable. Balneário Camboriú sits in subtropical Santa Catarina — UV is intense even on cloudy days. Bring high-SPF sunscreen and a hat.
- Book Unipraias ahead. The cable car sells out quickly on busy ship days. Book online or at the terminal early to avoid missing it.
- Theme park = full day. Beto Carrero World is 30 km away — only attempt it if your ship is in port for 9+ hours and you book ship excursion transport.
- Laranjeiras is calmer than Central. For a swim, Laranjeiras Beach (reachable by cable car or boat) has calmer, cleaner water than the main beach on busy ship days.
- Uber works well here. Uber is reliable throughout the city and often cheaper than taxis. Download the app and have it set up before your ship arrives.
