KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Budget time for the double transfer. Tender to Caticlan then bangka to Boracay takes 45–60 min each way — plan on leaving the ship at least 30 min before the first tender so you get a full day on the island.
- Bring Philippine Pesos (PHP) in cash. Environmental fee (≈300 PHP) and terminal fee (≈150 PHP) are paid at Caticlan Jetty. ATMs are available at D'Mall but can run out during peak days. BDO and BPI are the most reliable.
- No smoking or alcohol on White Beach. Philippine law prohibits both on the beachfront — violators face fines. Bars serve drinks in designated areas away from the shoreline.
- Sea conditions affect the tender/bangka crossing. From June–October (southwest monsoon), seas can be choppy and crossings rougher or briefly suspended. The east coast of Boracay is more sheltered but less developed.
- Agree on e-trike fares before boarding. Fixed routes have set rates (50–100 PHP most trips), but drivers may quote tourist prices. Grab a shared e-trike at Cagban Port to D'Mall for the cheapest ride.
- Arrive early at White Beach. Sunloungers along prime stretches of Station 1 and 2 fill fast by mid-morning, especially on days when multiple ships are in. A morning swim before lunch beats the afternoon crowd.
