KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- You're already downtown. River ships moor in central Bremen, so the old town is a short walk away — no shuttle or transfer needed for the main sights.
- BremenCARD covers all public transport in Bremen plus free or discounted entry to museums. Available at the tourist info office near Marktplatz.
- Rathaus tours in English run most days — check times at the tourist office. Entry is inexpensive and the council chamber interior is spectacular.
- Beck's Brewery tours book up quickly on cruise days. Reserve in advance online, or check availability at the pier's tour desk.
- Sunday closures: Many shops are shut on Sundays. Restaurants, cafés, and major attractions stay open.
- Bring a light layer. Northern German weather is changeable year-round — even summer days can be cool and damp.
