TOP THINGS TO DO

- Old Town & Cathedral — The golden-domed Cádiz Cathedral, the Roman theatre, Plaza de las Flores market, and the Torre Tavira camera obscura for views over one of Europe's...
- Seville Day Trip — Andalusia's dazzling capital — the vast Gothic cathedral and Giralda, the Real Alcázar palace, and the Plaza de España.
- Jerez: Sherry & Horses — The home of sherry — a bodega tour and tasting — paired with the famous Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art's dancing horses.
- La Caleta Beach & Sea Walls — The pretty city beach framed by two castles, plus a stroll along the Atlantic sea-wall promenades and the Genovés park — relaxed, scenic, and right...

BEST WALKS

- Old town & cathedral loop ~2.5 km · 1.5 hrs · easy — From Plaza San Juan de Dios past the market and Plaza de las Flores to the golden-domed cathedral, then up the Torre Tavira for a rooftop panorama.
- La Caleta & castles ~2.5 km · 1.5 hrs · easy — Out to La Caleta beach between the Santa Catalina and San Sebastián castles, with sweeping Atlantic views along the sea wall.
- Genovés Park & sea promenade ~2 km · 1 hr · easy — The leafy botanical park and the Alameda sea-wall promenade on the city's northwest edge — shade, ocean breeze, and ramparts.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Decide Seville early. It's an 8+ hour round trip — magnificent, but it eats the whole day. Jerez is a closer, lighter Andalusian alternative.
- Cádiz rewards wandering. One of Europe's oldest cities is compact and walkable from the ship — easy to DIY with no tour.
- Eat the fried fish. Cádiz invented pescaíto frito — grab a paper cone of fresh fried seafood from a freiduría in the old town.
- Cards work, carry a little cash. Spain is card-friendly, but small tapas bars and market stalls appreciate euros.
- Bring sun protection. Cádiz is bright and exposed on its Atlantic peninsula — hat, sunscreen, and water for a day of old-town walking.
