Getting around: Taxi €12–€15

TOP THINGS TO DO

- Castello Ducale di Corigliano — One of Southern Italy's best-preserved Norman-Aragonese castles.
- Codex Purpureus & Rossano Old Town — The Diocesan Museum in Rossano houses a 6th-century Byzantine Gospel on purple vellum — a UNESCO-recognized masterpiece.
- Amarelli Licorice Factory, Rossano — The Amarelli family has been producing licorice on this estate since 1731.
- Schiavonea Beach Day — The wide Ionian beach at Schiavonea is a short walk from the pier.
- Corigliano Historic Centre Walk — Wander medieval lanes, stone arches, and steep staircases in the hilltop centro storico.

BEST WALKS

- Schiavonea Lungomare Stroll 1.5 km each way | Flat | 30–40 min return — From the port gate, follow the coast road north to the Lungomare promenade.
- Corigliano Centro Storico Lanes 1-2 km loop | Hilly | 45-60 min | Taxi up required — Take a taxi to the castle, then spend an hour weaving through the medieval centre's narrow stepped lanes.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Carry cash euros. Many small cafes, lidos, and market stalls in Corigliano only accept cash, especially for purchases under €10.
- Riposo shuts everything down 13:00–16:30. Plan your castle or museum visit in the morning, then head to the beach or lungomare in the afternoon.
- Taxis are scarce — arrange returns. There's no taxi rank at the port. Ask port staff to call one, and always negotiate the return pickup time and price before you leave.
- Try 'nduja at least once. Calabria's fiery spreadable sausage is a local icon — order it on bruschetta or mixed into pasta at any trattoria on the lungomare.
- Download offline Italian. English is rarely spoken outside tourist-facing businesses. A few words of Italian and an offline translator go a long way with warm local hospitality.
- This is an emerging cruise port. Calls are infrequent and the port is a working commercial quay — don't expect a polished terminal, but do expect an authentic, uncrowded Southern Italian experience.
