KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Arrange round-trip taxis. At remote sites like Al Badiyah Mosque and Snoopy Island, taxis to hail are rare — agree on a pick-up time and price before your driver leaves.
- Dress modestly outside resorts. Fujairah is more conservative than Dubai. Cover shoulders and knees when in town, the fort, or the mosque area.
- Cash for markets. AED is the currency (1 USD ≈ 3.67 AED). Cards work at malls and hotels, but carry cash for the Friday Market and small local restaurants.
- Snoopy Island is the real draw. If you enjoy snorkeling, the 45-minute drive to Al Aqah is worth every minute — sea turtles practically guaranteed.
- Friday openings vary. Friday is the UAE holy day — some government-run sites open late (after 1:30 PM). Tourist attractions, malls, and beaches stay open throughout.
- October–April is peak season. Arabian Gulf cruise season runs Nov–Apr. Summer calls can be extremely hot (45°C+); prioritize early morning excursions and carry water.
