

Great Harbour Cay, Berry Islands, Bahamas

One of the Bahamas' best-kept secrets, Great Harbour Cay delivers mile-long empty beaches, a 1960s jet-set past, and some of the finest bonefishing flats in the Caribbean — all with barely another tourist in sight.

GETTING ASHORE

Docking: Tender only — ships anchor offshore

Walk to center: 5 min to Bullock's Harbour village from marina dock

Best For: Deserted beaches, bonefishing, snorkeling, digital detox

Don't Miss: Sugar Beach caves and the island's 7-mile beach crescent

 Getting around:  Taxi  Negotiated

TOP THINGS TO DO

- Bardot Beach Day — A long crescent of powder-white sand along the island's roughly 7 miles of beach, said locally to be where Brigitte Bardot swam during her 1960s...
- Hoffman's Cay Blue Hole — A short boat ride south, Hoffman's Cay features a dramatic blue hole roughly 600 feet across with a 20-foot cliff for jumping.
- Bonefishing the Berry Flats — The Berry Islands are legendary among fly-fishers.
- Shark Creek Mangrove Tour — A winding tidal creek at the island's south end, nursery to baby sharks, sea turtles, eagle rays, and juvenile fish.
- Sugar Beach & the Old Golf Ruins — Sugar Beach's limestone cliffs hide sea caves to explore at low tide.

BEST WALKS

- Bullock's Harbour Village Stroll 0.5 miles · 15-20 min · Easy — Walk from the marina through Great Harbour Cay's main settlement — colourful houses, friendly locals, a small market, and views over the inner harbour.
- Marina to Bardot Beach 0.8 miles · 20 min · Easy (or golf cart) — A flat paved road leads from the marina to the closest stretch of the famous Bardot Beach.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Cash is king. Bring USD in small bills — card readers on the island are unreliable and ATMs don't exist. Budget for golf cart rental, taxis, food, and any excursions.
- Pre-book a golf cart. Supply is limited. If your ship is calling here, the handful of available carts will vanish fast — email a local rental agency (e.g. Harbourside Golf Cart Rentals) weeks in advance.
- Pack strong bug spray. No-see-ums (sand flies) and mosquitoes are real, especially near the mangroves and at dusk. High-DEET repellent is essential.
- Bring your own sun gear. Beach umbrellas and shade structures are not available for hire at public beaches. Pack sunscreen, a hat, and a UV shirt.
- Go off-grid gracefully. Cell service is near-zero. Download offline maps before you sail and enjoy the digital detox — it's part of the charm.
- Beachcombers' paradise. The uncrowded shores yield intact sand dollars, queen conch shells, and sea glass. Low tide reveals a vast sandbar you can walk hundreds of yards into the shallows.
