TOP THINGS TO DO

- Caves Bernard-Massard Cellar Tour & Tasting — Luxembourg's most celebrated Crémant producer sits 300 m from the quay.
- Jardin des Papillons (Butterfly Garden) — An indoor tropical greenhouse filled with hundreds of free-flying exotic butterflies, chameleons, and quails — kept at a balmy 27 °C year-round.
- Medieval Town Walls & Hockerturm — Grevenmacher's 13th-century fortifications are partially intact.
- Day Trip to Trier, Germany — The oldest city in Germany is just 20 minutes by free bus from Grevenmacher.
- Border Walk to Wellen, Germany — Cross the Moselle on the pedestrian-friendly Wellen Bridge and set foot in Germany in under 10 minutes.

BEST WALKS

- Quay to Old Town & Crémant Caves 1 km loop · 20 min · flat · free — From the quay head south along the promenade to Caves Bernard-Massard, then continue into the Grand-Rue pedestrian zone.
- Riverside Walk to the Butterfly Garden 2.4 km round-trip · 30 min · flat — Follow the Moselle promenade north from the quay through willows and vineyards to reach the Jardin des Papillons.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Book Bernard-Massard in advance: The cave tours often fill up when multiple ships are in port. Reserve online before your cruise day.
- Public transport is free: Every bus and train in Luxembourg costs nothing. Grab the bus near the bridge for a free 35-min ride to Luxembourg City or 20-min ride to Trier.
- Sunday closures: Most retail shops shut on Sundays. Bernard-Massard, the Butterfly Garden, and riverside restaurants stay open.
- Currency: Euro everywhere. Cards are widely accepted; carry a little cash for bakeries and small purchases.
- Weather note: The Moselle Valley gets warm summers but spring and autumn can be cool and wet. Pack a light layer — the riverside walk is exposed.
- Local food tip: Order Friture de la Moselle (tiny fried river fish) with a glass of Elbling white wine — the quintessential Grevenmacher snack.
