KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Book Miniatur Wunderland online. Timed tickets sell out days (sometimes weeks) ahead in summer — sort this before your cruise or expect a long queue.
- Steinwerder passengers need the shuttle ferry. It runs to Landungsbrücken and is the quickest route into the city. A Hamburg Card covers the fare and all onward public transport.
- Try a Franzbrötchen. Hamburg's signature cinnamon-sugar pastry is sold at every bakery. Grab one with coffee for €2-3. Also look for Fischbrötchen (fish sandwiches) at Landungsbrücken — a local staple.
- Hamburg weather is unpredictable. Pack a light waterproof even in summer — the city averages rain most months, but showers pass quickly.
- Carry some cash. The Fischmarkt and smaller Speicherstadt cafes are often cash-only. ATMs (Geldautomat) are plentiful in the city center.
- Shops close on Sundays. If your call is Sunday, skip shopping and focus on museums, the Fischmarkt (closes 9:30am!), harbor, and outdoor sights.
