KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Carry cash. Small-town Germany often prefers cash — bring Euros for museums, bakeries, and cafés.
- Bring or rent a bike. Havelberg is on the Elberadweg; flat riverbank paths make cycling the best way to explore beyond the island.
- The Dom climb is steep. It's a genuine uphill walk from the river — allow extra time and wear comfortable shoes. Taxis are available at the quay.
- Try the Zander. Pike-perch is the local freshwater speciality — look for it at riverside restaurants and the Hoffnung restaurant ship.
- September visit? The Havelberger Pferdemarkt (Horse Market), held the first weekend of September, is one of Europe's largest folk markets — expect huge crowds.
