

Ibiza, Balearic Islands, Spain

The White Island delivers a striking double life — ancient Phoenician ramparts and UNESCO cobblestone streets by day, legendary beach clubs and sunset bars by night. Most cruise passengers arrive for the history and leave wishing they had more time.

GETTING ASHORE

Docking: Pier at Es Botafoch (Botafoch Pier), ~3 km from Ibiza Town center

Walk to center: ~40 min on flat waterfront path; most passengers use water taxi (€3-4) or shuttle

Best For: UNESCO history, beaches, Balearic food, nightlife (overnights)

Don't Miss: Dalt Vila ramparts at sunset — free views rival anything paid on the island

 Getting around:  Taxi  €8–€12 ·  Rideshare  Uber

TOP THINGS TO DO

- Dalt Vila & the Phoenician Necropolis — Ibiza's UNESCO-listed fortified old town is the unmissable centerpiece.
- Talamanca Beach — The closest good beach to the cruise pier — a 20-minute walk or 5-minute taxi from Es Botafoch.
- Es Vedrà & the Southwest Coast — The dramatic 400m limestone rock off the southwest coast is Ibiza's most iconic natural landmark — mythologized as a magnetic island tied to sirens...
- Las Dalias Hippie Market (Saturdays) — One of the Balearics' most famous open-air markets, running every Saturday in Sant Carles de Peralta (San Carlos), about 25 km northeast of Ibiza Town.
- Balearic Food & Tapas in the Old Town — The La Marina neighborhood at the foot of Dalt Vila is dense with restaurants serving traditional dishes: bullit de peix (fish stew), sobrassada on...

BEST WALKS

- Old Port to Dalt Vila Cathedral 1.5 km | 45-60 min | Moderate (steep, cobbled) — Start at the Old Port monument, enter Dalt Vila through the Portal de ses Taules, and wind uphill through whitewashed alleys to the cathedral and ramparts.
- Marina to Talamanca Beach 1.8 km | 20 min | Easy (flat) — Walk north along the marina promenade from the Aquabus stop past the superyachts to the sandy crescent of Talamanca Beach.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Wear proper shoes for Dalt Vila. The ancient cobblestones are steep, smooth, and genuinely slippery. Flip-flops or dressy sandals are a bad idea — you will struggle or fall.
- Use the Aquabus. The water taxi from Marina Botafoch to the Old Port costs ~€3 and is faster, cooler, and more scenic than walking. Buy your return ticket at the dock.
- Start the old town early. Ibiza bakes in summer — the narrow cobblestone streets of Dalt Vila offer little shade. Get up there by 9:30 AM and return to the beach by midday.
- Arrange your taxi back. In July and August taxis are in short supply. If you head out to the southwest coast, Es Vedrà, or a remote beach, agree a pickup time with your driver — missing the ship from Ibiza would be a very expensive mistake.
- Try bullit de peix. Ibiza's signature fish stew is the real local dish — not paella. Find it at a family restaurant in La Marina or along the Talamanca beachfront, not at the tourist traps on the main drag.
- Overnight calls = Cafe del Mar. If your ship stays into the evening, Cafe del Mar on the Sant Antoni sunset strip is a Mediterranean institution — arrive by 7 PM for the legendary sunset ritual. Free to watch from the terrace walkway.
