KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Use Kakao Map or Naver Map — Google Maps is unreliable in Korea. Download one before you dock; most locations require Korean characters to search.
- Cash is useful at traditional markets. ATMs are available at both cruise terminals; Dongmun and Olle markets have vendors that prefer won.
- Try Jeju black pork (흑돼지) — the island's signature dish, a grilled heritage breed pork served with dipping sauces and wrapped in lettuce. Seogwipo's restaurants are excellent.
- Plan your port side wisely — Gangjeong port puts you 40+ minutes from east-coast sites like Seongsan. If docked north, Manjanggul is closer. Mix of sites means hiring a driver-guide pays off.
- Weather changes fast on Jeju — the island creates its own micro-climates around Hallasan volcano. Pack a light layer even in summer.
- Seongsan Ilchulbong admission is ₩5,000 (~$3.50 USD). Manjanggul lava tube is ₩4,000 (~$3). Both are excellent value. Buy tickets on-site — no advance booking needed.
