KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Pack bug spray: Blackflies and mosquitoes are fierce June–August in northern Ontario. Bring DEET or Icaridin repellent — especially for any hiking.
- Wear hiking shoes: Even the village streets involve uneven granite rock and gravel paths. Sandals or heels are a bad idea.
- Cards widely accepted: Canadian dollars are the currency; most places take credit/debit. A small amount of CAD cash is handy for Herbert's Fisheries.
- Cell service drops fast: The village has reasonable signal, but it vanishes as soon as you enter Killarney Provincial Park. Download offline maps before heading out.
- No taxis or rideshare: Killarney has zero Uber/Lyft coverage. If you want to visit the Provincial Park independently, arrange transport through Killarney Mountain Lodge or book a ship excursion.
- Herbert's Fisheries is unmissable: This local institution serves some of the best fish and chips in Ontario — grab a portion on the dock and eat with Georgian Bay as your backdrop.
