KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Tender first, then explore: Large ships tender to the West Harbor — collect your tender ticket early as queues form toward departure. Return tenders can also back up near sailaway.
- Wear grip shoes: The limestone cobbles of the Old Town are polished smooth by centuries of foot traffic and are extremely slippery when wet.
- Try Grk wine: The white Grk grape grows only in the sandy soils around Lumbarda — you genuinely cannot find it elsewhere. Order it at any restaurant or visit a local wine bar in the Old Town.
- Check Moreška timing: The sword dance is performed on Monday and Thursday evenings in summer. If your ship is in port on one of these nights, tickets (around €15–20) are well worth it.
- Old Town has steep steps: The fishbone alleyways are largely step-heavy and uneven — not accessible for wheelchairs or prams. The flat waterfront promenade is the accessible option.
- Tap water is safe and good: Korcula's tap water is clean and great-tasting — bring a reusable bottle and skip the single-use plastic.
