TOP THINGS TO DO

- Dörenther Cliffs & Crouching Woman — Hike to the Dörenther Klippen, dramatic sandstone cliffs up to 40 m high in the Teutoburg Forest.
- Tecklenburg Medieval Old Town — The nearby hilltop town of Tecklenburg is one of the prettiest in Westphalia — cobbled lanes, well-preserved half-timbered houses, and a ruined...
- Canal Towpath Cycling — Follow the flat, scenic towpath of the Dortmund-Ems Canal on two wheels.
- Ladbergen Village & Heimatmuseum — Explore the village centre's half-timbered houses, photograph the old water mill, and visit the Heimatmuseum for a glimpse into local history and the...

BEST WALKS

- Village Centre & Old Water Mill 1–2 km · 30 min · Easy — A short stroll from the canal berth into the village centre, past half-timbered farmhouses and the picturesque old water mill on the Mühlenbach stream.
- Canal Towpath Walk 2–4 km · 45–90 min · Easy — Head north or south along the Dortmund-Ems Canal towpath for a tranquil walk through Münsterland farmland, watching barge traffic and canal locks.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- This is cycling country. If your cruise line offers a bike excursion, take it — the flat canal towpath and country lanes are ideal for all fitness levels.
- Ladbergen is tiny. Don't expect tourist shops or a big cruise welcome. Bring euros in cash — small village businesses rarely accept cards.
- Get to Tecklenburg if you can. The medieval hilltop town ~13 km away is far more scenic and offers castle ruins, restaurants, and a real taste of Westphalia.
- Wear walking shoes. Even a gentle stroll to the canal towpath or village centre benefits from comfortable footwear.
- Bring a light rain layer. North Rhine-Westphalia sees frequent showers year-round; the canal towpath has little shelter.
