KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Free museums everywhere. Museum of Liverpool (Pier Head), Merseyside Maritime Museum (Albert Dock), and Tate Liverpool all have free permanent exhibitions — budget your time, not your money.
- Cards are king. Contactless payment is widely accepted across Liverpool — shops, buses, ferries, even market stalls. Carry a small amount of cash (£20–30) for taxis or smaller vendors.
- Book Beatles tours in advance. Guided Cavern Club and Penny Lane taxi tours fill up quickly on busy ship days. Pre-book online or through the ship excursions desk.
- Everything is walkable from the ship. The terminal is at Pier Head — you don't need a shuttle. Albert Dock is 10 min on foot; Liverpool city centre 15 min. No hills to worry about.
- Chester is an easy day trip. Liverpool Central station is a 15-min walk from the pier; trains to Chester run every 30 min and take about 45 minutes each way. Buy a return ticket on the platform.
- Pack a light rain layer. Liverpool weather is famously changeable — even a sunny morning can bring afternoon showers. A compact waterproof keeps your day on track.
