

Lovango Cay, US Virgin Islands

A 118-acre private island anchored in Pillsbury Sound between St. Thomas and St. John, Lovango Cay trades cruise-ship crowds for a solar-powered beach club, a 70-foot infinity pool, and some of the USVI's best snorkeling right off the dock.

Tender only (no pier)

Typical call: 5–8 hrs

TOP THINGS TO DO

- Infinity Pool & Beach Club Day — The centrepiece of Lovango is a 70-foot infinity pool perched above South Beach, with loungers, cabanas, and full bar...
 - Congo Cay Snorkel Safari — A short boat transfer reaches Congo Cay, a protected bird sanctuary to the north of Lovango with a pristine barrier reef.
- Island Viewpoint Hike — A self-guided trail climbs to the island's highest point for 360° views of St.
 - North Beach (Crescent Beach) — A short hike across the island leads to the wilder North Beach (Crescent Beach).
 - Waterfront Dining at The Sand Bar — Skip the fine-dining reservation and pull up a stool at The Sand Bar for wood-fired pizza, tacos, and frozen rum drinks...

BEST WALKS

- Dock to Viewpoint Loop 1.5 km • ~45 min • Easy–moderate — From the Lovango Resort Dock, follow signs past the Welcome Center and Beach Club to the marked viewpoint trail.
- Beach Club Stroll < 0.5 km • 10 min • Easy — A flat walk from the dock through the resort shops and Lovango Village to South Beach and the infinity pool.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Watch the clock. The island is small, but tendering back adds time. Leave Lovango at least 90 minutes before all-aboard — tender wait + ship boarding can take 30–40 min.
- Book in advance. Beach club day passes sell out weeks ahead, especially Dec–Apr. Showing up without a booking risks being turned away — this is a private resort, not a public...
