KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Wear grippy shoes. The polished cobblestones inside the castle are slippery even when dry. Sturdy sneakers are essential; sandals and heels are a recipe for a fall.
- Take the shuttle bus. It runs frequently from the mainland bridge to the castle gate for about €1.50 each way — saves a hot 15–20 minute walk and your energy for exploring inside.
- Bring water and sun protection. There's almost no shade inside the castle, especially climbing to the Upper Town. Heat exhaustion
