TOP THINGS TO DO

- Moominworld on Kailo Island — The world's only Moomin theme park sits on a small island connected to the harbor by footbridge.
- Naantali Old Town & Convent Church — One of Finland's best-preserved old towns, with colorful 18th-century wooden houses lining cobblestone lanes.
- Rantaraitti Coastal Walk — A 3.5 km scenic path stretching from Kuparivuori Hill along the Old Town shore to Taimo Beach.
- Kultaranta Presidential Gardens — The President of Finland's summer residence — a granite villa surrounded by 3,500+ rose bushes and ornamental gardens...
- Archipelago Sea Kayaking — Paddle through the Turku Archipelago — one of the world's largest — from Naantali's waterfront.

BEST WALKS

- Harbor to Moominworld Loop 2 km · 30 min · Easy — From the pier, follow the waterfront to the Kailo Island footbridge, explore Moominworld, then loop back through the Old Town lanes...
- Rantaraitti Shore Path 3.5 km one-way · ~50 min · Easy — Walk the signed coastal trail from the Old Town beach south to Taimo Beach, passing viewpoints over the archipelago, swimming docks...

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Moominworld is seasonal. The park is open only mid-June through late August — check exact dates before sailing. Outside that window there's still plenty to see in Old Town.
- Cards accepted everywhere. Finland is nearly cashless; credit/debit cards work at all shops, cafés, and attractions. No need for euro cash.
