TOP THINGS TO DO

- Fort Rodney & the Interpretation Centre — Explore 18th-century British fortifications built by Admiral George Rodney.
- Signal Peak Hike — The island's highest point rewards a steep 30-minute climb with a 360-degree panorama over Rodney Bay, the northern St.
- Pigeon Island Beaches — Two sheltered white-sand beaches on the park's south side face the calm Caribbean Sea, making them ideal for swimming...
- Sea Trek & SNUBA — Operators inside the park offer underwater helmet walks (Sea Trek) and SNUBA dives off the island's beaches, exploring...
- Jambe de Bois Lunch — Named for pirate François le Clerc ("Jambe de Bois," or "Wooden Leg"), who used the island as a base to raid Spanish...

BEST WALKS

- Park Loop: Beaches to Fort Rodney 1.5 km · 30 min · Easy — From the park entrance, follow the paved path to the beaches, then loop up to Fort Rodney's lower fortifications.
- Signal Peak Summit 0.8 km one way · 30–40 min · Strenuous — Continue past Fort Rodney on a steep dirt and rock trail to Signal Peak.
