TOP THINGS TO DO

- Ancient Nicopolis — Founded by Octavian (later Augustus) around 29 BC to commemorate his victory at the nearby Battle of Actium (31 BC)...
- Ambracian Gulf Boat Tour — The Ambracian Gulf is a protected national park and one of the most important wetlands in Europe.
- Monolithi Beach — One of the longest sandy beaches in the European Union, Monolithi stretches nearly 22 km and is backed by fragrant...
- Seytan Pazar & Old Town Walk — Wander the Ottoman-era Devil's Bazaar — a maze of flower-draped alleyways lined with traditional ouzeries, local shops...
- Pantokratoras Castle & Coastal Walk — Follow the coastal path about 3 km west from the port to reach this early 19th-century castle built by Ali Pasha around...

BEST WALKS

- Waterfront to Seytan Pazar Loop 1.5 km · 30–45 min · Flat & easy — Start at the cruise quay, stroll the promenade past yachts and cafes, then duck into the Seytan Pazar alleyways to find ouzeries...
- Coastal Walk to Pantokratoras Castle ~6 km round trip · 1.5–2 hrs · Flat coastal path — Head west along the seafront past the small marina.
- Kyani Akti Beach Walk 1.5 km one-way · 20 min · Shaded eucalyptus path — Walk west from the port along a tree-lined coastal path to Kyani Akti (Blue Coast) beach.

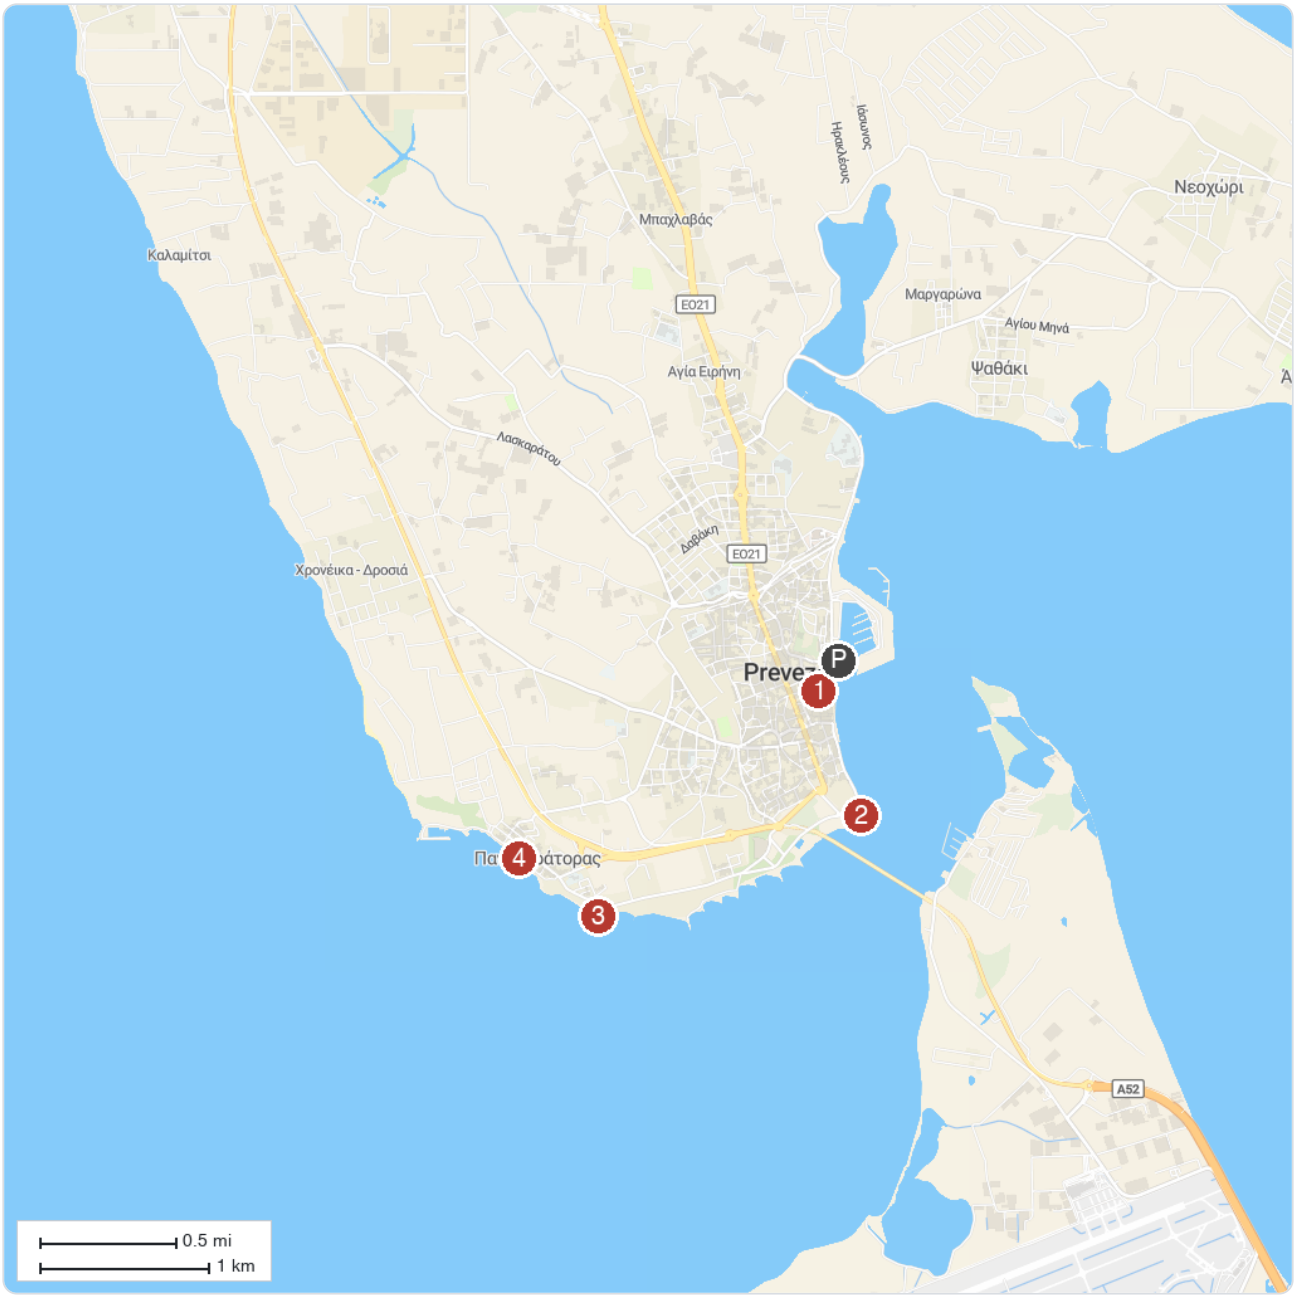

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Order the local shrimp. Ambracian Gulf prawns are famous across Greece — sweet, plump, and best grilled simply. Any waterfront taverna will have them; expect €12–18 for a generous...
- Shop before 2 PM. Many local boutiques and souvenir shops observe a siesta (roughly 2–5:30 PM). Cafes, restaurants, and ouzeries stay open all day.
- Negotiate taxi fares upfront. Preveza taxis don't always run meters for tourist trips. Agree on a price before you get in — Nicopolis and back (with a wait) runs about €20–25...
