KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Tender schedule matters. Confirm the last tender return time before heading out — missing it means finding your own way back.
- USD is widely accepted but change is given in EC dollars (1 USD ≈ 2.70 XCD). Use small bills; some vendors round in their favor.
- It's hot and humid. Sunscreen, a hat, and a reusable water bottle are non-negotiable. The marina bar sells cold water and Carib beer dockside.
- Negotiate taxi rates upfront. Agree on a round-trip price and a pickup time — drivers double as guides and most know the island well.
- Don't skip the Underwater Sculpture Park. It's unique to Grenada and accessible even to non-divers via glass-bottom boat or snorkel. Book through the marina or a local operator.
- Buy spices at the market, not the dock. St. George's spice market has far better prices and variety than any vendor that boards the tender.
