GETTING ASHORE

Docking: Tender — ship anchors offshore; 10–20 min tender ride to marina

Don't Miss: Coral reef snorkeling just off the beach; Bahamian straw market

Best For: Beach day, snorkeling, bungalow rentals, family relaxation

Watch Out For: Rocky shoreline entry — water shoes are essential

 Getting around:  Rideshare ❌ not available

TOP THINGS TO DO

- Snorkel the Natural Reef — A thriving coral reef sits just offshore, accessible from the beach with minimal swimming.
- Dune Buggy Heritage Adventure — Cruise off the resort property and explore Eleuthera's dramatic scenery and local heritage on an open dune buggy.
- Stingray Encounter — Wade into a sheltered lagoon on-site and interact with southern stingrays in a guided, shallow-water experience — a big...
- Private Bungalow or Clamshell — Reserve a shaded clamshell (two loungers, canvas canopy) or an air-conditioned bungalow for the day.
- Clear-Bottom Kayaking — Paddle a transparent kayak over Eleuthera's brilliant shallow flats and spot sea life below without getting wet.

BEST WALKS

- Marina to Observation Tower & South Beach ~1.5 km one-way | Easy | 15–20 min — From the tender marina, stroll south past the main beach bars and grill toward quieter South Beach.
- Bahamian Straw Market Stroll ~5 min from marina | Easy — Just beyond the marina, a designated area hosts local Bahamian artisans selling straw hats, bags, wood carvings, and offering hair...

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Wear water shoes. The shoreline entry is rocky and coral-covered. This is the single most important tip for Princess Cays — bare feet will regret it.
- Grab a hammock early. The hammocks under the palms go fast. Head right from the marina toward South Beach for fewer crowds.
- Princess drink packages work here; Carnival's CHEERS! does not. Holland America guests pay per drink. Budget for on-island drinks if sailing Carnival or HAL.
