KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Carry cash: Japan is still largely cash-based. 7-Eleven and Japan Post ATMs reliably accept foreign Visa/Mastercard. Many small restaurants, temples, and markets are cash only.
- Get an IC card: Buy a Pasma Passport or Welcome Suica at the airport or cruise terminal. Tap-to-pay works on every train, subway, and bus in Tokyo and Yokohama — no fussing with tickets.
- Know your pier: Itineraries labeled 'Tokyo' often dock at Yokohama (30-40 min to Tokyo by JR). Confirm your pier well before sailing — it completely changes your logistics.
- Eat everywhere: Convenience stores (7-Eleven, FamilyMart, Lawson) sell genuinely good food — onigiri, sandwiches, hot foods. Restaurant plastic display cases mean zero language barrier for ordering.
- Etiquette matters: No tipping — ever. Speak quietly on trains, don't eat while walking, and don't stick chopsticks upright in rice. A small bow of acknowledgment goes a long way.
- Allow transit time: Tokyo is enormous.
