TOP THINGS TO DO

- Verona — Arena, Juliet's Balcony & Piazzas — Italy's most romantic city is 45 minutes away.
- Mantua — Gonzaga Renaissance Palaces — Mantua (Mantova) is a UNESCO-listed Renaissance gem surrounded by lakes.
- Legnago — Salieri's Birthplace & Torrione — The town of Legnago honors its most famous son, composer Antonio Salieri, with a named theater and square.
- Canal & River Cycling — Canalbianco Levees — The Veneto is pancake-flat and perfect for cycling.
- Ferrara — Moated Renaissance City — Ferrara's fairy-tale Estense Castle with its moat and towers, plus the massive medieval city walls (still intact and...)

BEST WALKS

- Legnago Town Center Walk 2-3 km loop • Easy • ~1 hr — From Piazza Libertà, see the Torrione tower and the remnants of the old fortifications, then head to Piazza Salieri and the Teatro...
- Canalbianco Levee Stroll Easy • Flat • As long as you like — From the ship mooring, walk along the raised levee path beside the Canalbianco canal.

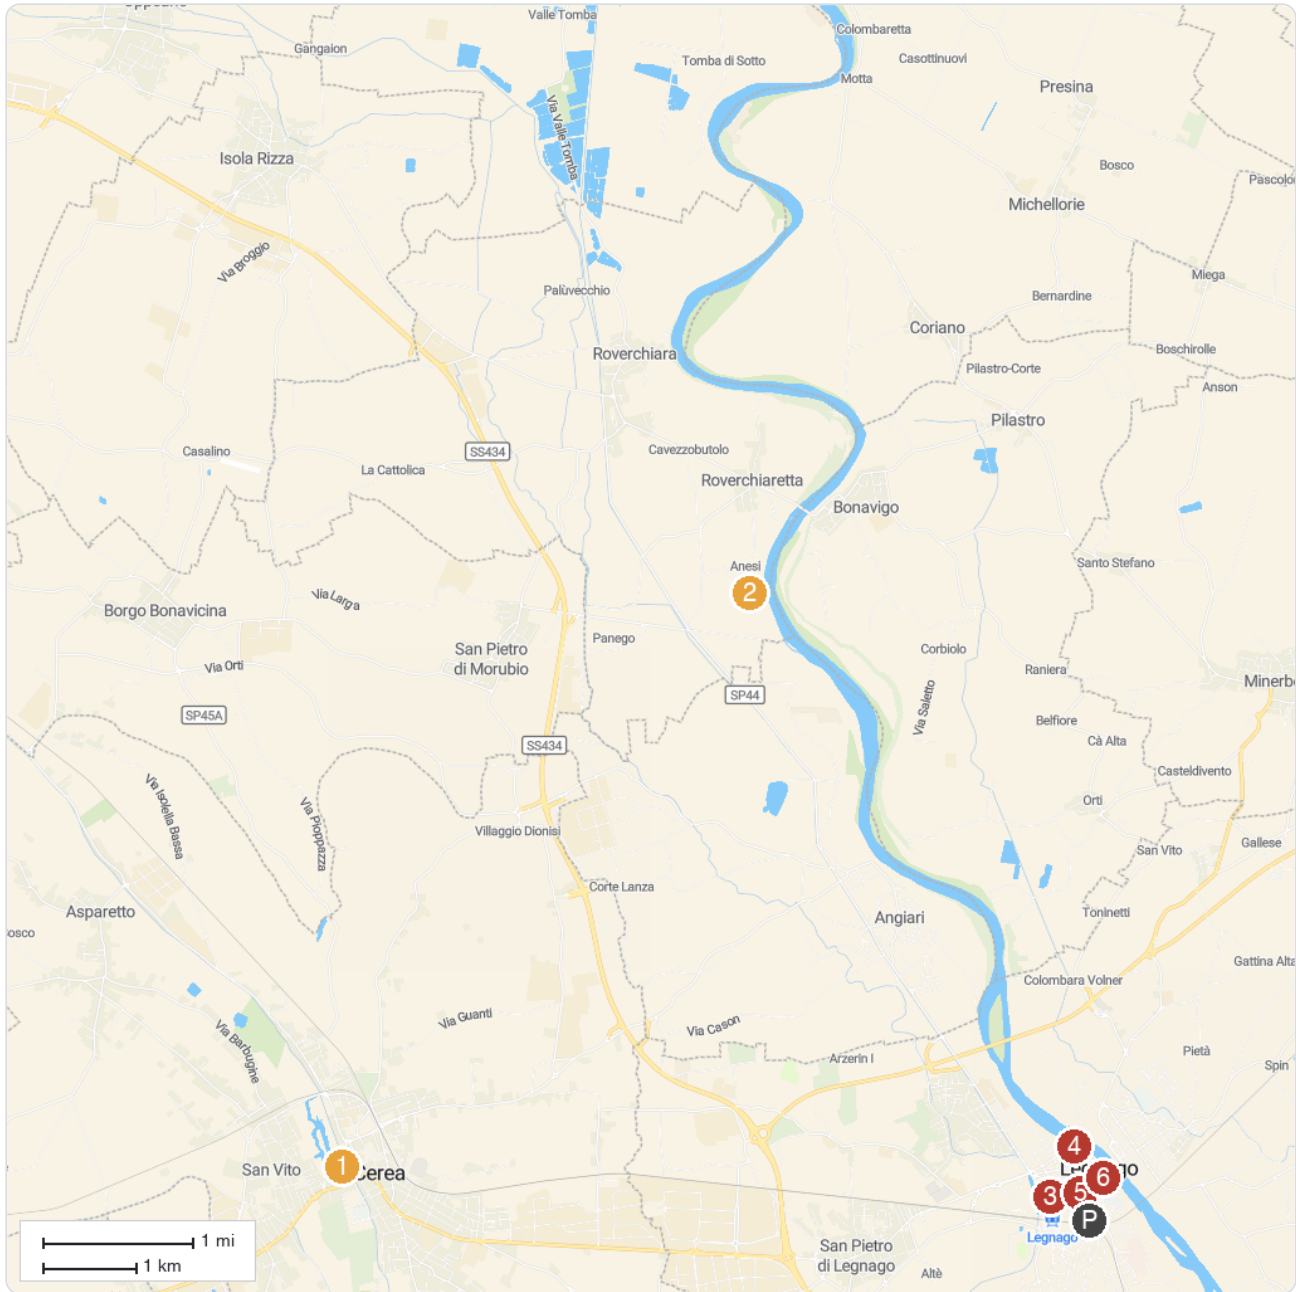

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Book transport early. There are no taxis waiting at the rural Torretta pier. Pre-arrange a ship shuttle, hire a taxi through reception, or borrow a ship bicycle before...
- Riposo hours: Shops and museums in Legnago close for afternoon siesta roughly 12:30–3:30 PM. Plan visits to museums and churches for the morning.
- Bring or borrow a bike. The flat levee paths around Torretta and Legnago are excellent for cycling. Ask your ship's crew whether bicycles are available on board.
